

Rafting the Urubamba River and tour to the Rainbow Mountain Vinicunca

(2d/1n)

This magnificent proposal includes trekking through the Cordillera Vilcanota until reaching the Mountain of 7 colors; On the way you will have a great chance of seeing condors and vicuñas as well as meeting Quechua natives who live at 14,000 feet.

You will also live an exciting adventure rafting in class III and III + rapids in the Urubamba River, which rises in the heights of the Andes and crosses the Sacred Valley of the Incas to finally reach the jungle.

ITINERARY

Day 01

- 1 We will pick you up at 8:30 AM from your hotel in Cusco. Our tourist service bus will take you to the south of Cusco, to the town of Cusipata; the transfer lasts an average of 1 hour and 40 minutes on the Cusco-Sicuaní highway.
- 2 We will arrive at our destination "Cusipata River Lodge", where you will find all the facilities such as: toilets, dressing rooms, sauna, lockers and all the boating equipment will be provided, such as: helmet, life jacket, wetsuit and a waterproof jacket. Then the guides will provide you with all the necessary information and we will proceed with the tour of the river in self-evacuating inflatable rafts for an average of 2 hours. The rapids in this section are Class III and III + - we also send a safety kayaker.
- 3 At the end of the rafting, you will return to "Cusipata River Lodge", where you can relax in our sauna and then have a delicious lunch in our dining room (Option: vegetarian lunch).
- 4 Then the guides will provide you with all the necessary information and equipment to ride the zip line that consists of 2 cables of 100 meters long each crossing the beautiful waters of the river. Then you will spend the rest of the afternoon at the lodge where we will provide dinner and campfires and spend the night in double or multi-bed rooms. (L + D)
